There are books from which we learn and then there are books which elucidate actual questions we face in life. This book is about the solidity that one's own understanding can provide in life. One of the major problems faced by the entire human race is herd mentality. There are many causes, which prevent a person from developing his understanding and thus forming screwed up beliefs. The point this book tries to make is that screw ups are good, they are vital to one's success; you just need the right view. It is a real life story of a boy with a screwed up life and screwed up beliefs, who stumbled upon vital fundamental knowledge, and he used this to find himself and achieve true success and fulfilment. A sweet and loving boy who saw a divorce during his childhood, suffered from severe low self esteem and wrong programming of beliefs and emotions. He saw himself becoming a victim in every situation in school, business and life. But an urge to give his family a better life and to be a HAPPY person, led him to uncover the "WHY" behind his screw-ups and gave him certain vital fundamental knowledge, with the help of which he defied all odds. From being just commerce graduate without any management degree he went on to run and grow an engineering business and start three ventures on his own, find his passions in life, connecting to his true self and making meaning out of screw ups. Our education system is simply not working because there are millions of people out there, who are not happy with life. The reason is this missing piece of information. This information can empower each one of us to create our reality, our lives in accordance to our dreams, desires and wish. This vital information can make everyone HAPPY.
