Multicultural Student Services on Campus: Building Bridges, Re-visioning Community (ACPA Books co-published with Stylus Publishing)

“The authors offer a collective vision of multicultural student services (MSS) that takes the best of what we have learned in the past to move forward in re-visioning the higher education community of the future. This is a bold vision of a newly-fashioned MSS that connects and integrates issues of race and ethnicity with those of sexual orientation, gender identity and religious expression, and takes MSS away from the margins of student and academic affairs units to become a key venue to assist in building transformative and democratic campus communities.”—Laura I. Rendón, Professor at the University of Texas-San Antonio
