The Church Militant: War Principles for Church Leaders Dr Charles Vogan

The Church has a Mission: God's people are called to prepare to live with him in Heaven. It's the Church's job to help them get there. The problem is that there is going to be war for the people of God, all the way to the Promised Land. But if the Church hopes to be of any help to Christians, it will have to learn how to apply energetic and efficient methods to reach the goal. The military understands the concept of a Mission, drills and training, discipline, unity, perseverance and loyalty. This model will go a long way to helping the Church achieve its Mission. Leaders are the most responsible for making the Mission of the Church happen. The purpose of this book, then, is to transfer the concepts of military discipline and fighting to the context of the Church, to give Church leaders the tools and methodology they need to achieve their objective -- for the benefit of the whole church.
