An English-Spanish Manual for Mental Health Professionals Veronica Gutierrez Ph.D, Cher Rafiee, Erin Kelly Bartelma, Veronica Guerra

This manual is intended to teach mental health professionals (e.g., psychologists, social workers) how to conduct therapy in Spanish. The manual consists of cultural considerations, glossary, and lessons. Each lesson has an objective, a list of relevant terms, a learning activity, and practice activity (e.g., matching, fill-in spaces). Some lessons include forms, which can be found in the appendices section of this manual. The manual covers various aspects of the therapy process, from the initial contact with the client to the termination session.
