Rice Pudding to Die For Jeff Bradbury

It's the mid-1980s, an era of yuppies and full student grants, but Oswald, who has just graduated, is nowhere near being one of the former and has ceased to receive the latter. The sensible policy would be to channel all his energy into looking for a job, but he has somehow managed to get through his three years as a student without losing his virginity, and is distracted by the desire to find a girlfriend. The odds are against him more heavily than ever now that he is living back under his parents' roof and signing on the dole, but Love is no respecter of circumstances...
