The New Israel: A Commentary on the Book of Isaiah 56-66 (International Theological Commentary)

Mr. George A. F. Knight

“Isaiah' provides us with a picture,” writes George A.F. Knight, “a pattern of revelation, hewn out of the facts of history.” In this book, which serves as a sequel to the author's Servant Theology (the International Theological Commentary on Isaiah 40–55), Knight focuses primarily on the theological themes of each chapter of Isaiah 56–66, with appropriate attention to significant critical issues. / Emphasizing Israel as “a light to the nations,” Knight is concerned throughout with theological issues of contemporary, international scope. He sees Isaiah as addressed to the social, historical situation not only of its own day but of this day as well, with significance for Jews and Muslims as well as Christians — “a book meant for all who come after.”
