When best friends Clayton, CJ and Iris go on a trip to Six Flags for a school choir competition, drama ensues. Although Clayton and CJ are friends, CJ sees him as more than that. As they arrive at Six Flags and venture around the park, the school bully, Hannah gets angry about not having things her way and ends up hitting CJ. The effects of that punch have a horrible effect on Clayton. But why? Clayton wasn't hit! On the way back to the school after placing in the competition, Iris and Clayton begin having a private discussion. CJ knows that clearly Clayton is hiding something and only Iris knows what it is. A well-written and emotional story of trust, anger, guilt and sexual identification; this story will keep you turning the pages from beginning to end!
