The Story of a Modern Day Cinderella Kate Houser

An entertaining, fun read for girls age 8 to 11

Catherine sometimes feels like a modern day Cinderella.

Her dad works away from home much of the time leaving Catherine stuck with her horrible stepmother and two equally horrible stepsisters. They make her do all the chores around the house which Catherine thinks is totally unfair. It does no good to argue though or her stepmother will just ground her.

Catherine and her stepsisters are participating in a state dance competition. Catherine feels that she and Rodney, her dance partner, have a very good chance at winning something at the competition. Catherine's stepmother wants to make sure Catherine and Rodney don't win.

Follow Catherine as she tries to outsmart her stepmother and stepsisters.

Will she win? Or will they get the best of her?
