Where Inches Seem Miles Joel F. Johnson

The poems in Joel F. Johnson's first book, Where Inches Seem Miles are stories told by an old man, a young widow, an Irish maid, a rattlesnake, a keeper of bullets and an heir to a ruined family fortune. They take place in the segregated south, in medieval England, near the Suez before the Great War, and in a modern Midtown hotel. Often ironic, sometimes sad, they consider love lost and found. In voices that are casual, lyric, witty or intense, they touch on war, death and sex in clear, dramatic language.
