60 Years of the Outland Trophy Gene Duffey

A collection of great stories about the 59 different Outland Trophy Winners since 1946. Named after the late Dr. John Outland, the Outland Trophy honors the best interior linemen in college football the unsung players who do the blocking and protecting for skilled players. Often overlooked by the mainstream media, the linemen have provided pivotal support for some of the greatest "name" players in the game. The colorful and often unique stories of these linemen, the "big uglies," are a must-read for college football fans everywhere.
