History of the Wars: Books 1-2 (Persian War) Procopius

"The last major ancient historian, Byzantine scholar PROCOPIUS OF CAESAREA (c. 500;565) traveled with the army of Eastern Roman Emperor Justinian I as a military adviser, and chronicled the wars he fought; this is the primary source today of information about the reign of Justinian I. Here, in Books I and II of the eight-volume History of the Wars, Procopius recounts the Persian War between Justinian and the Persian Empire, a fascinating retelling that includes extensive details of geography and thorough accounts of battles, political intrigues, and interpersonal dramas. Far from dry, this is a thrilling read, one that echoes of this still turbulent region today. Students of the history of the Middle East will be enthralled by this ancient work. "
