Writing All Wrongs (A Books by the Bay Mystery) Ellery Adams

The New York Times bestselling author of Lethal Letters returns to the North Carolina Coast, where aspiring novelist and amateur sleuth Olivia Limoges discovers crime doesn't take a vacation . . .

After Olivia and Chief Rawlings enjoy a brief honeymoon on Palmetto Island, they're joined by the rest of the Bayside Book Writers for the Coastal Carolina Crime Festival. The festival's highlight is Silas Black, celebrity screenwriter and television producer, who is currently working on a popular television show in North Carolina.

As the festival gets under way, a trickster seems to be bringing famous local ghost stories to life. But when the body of a woman close to Black is found on the beach, Olivia and her friends must deduce who on the island could resort to murder—before the sands of time run out for someone else...

Cynthia Cisneros:

As a college student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their hobby. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore, this Writing All Wrongs (A Books by the Bay Mystery) can make you sense more interested to read.
