Feeling isolated since becoming conscious? Many people believe their social life will come to a screeching halt, once they come into the knowledge of self . This couldn't be further from the truth. After knowledge comes wisdom. A wise person knows how to find balance in life by spending their leisure time in constructive, but fun social engagements. This is what this book is all about. Conscious Entertaining shares basic etiquette, tips for being a charming host/hostess, recipes, and party ideas for Black people of all ages. Entertaining is more than just a good way to relax. It is a method for unifying families and communities. Gracious hospitality is a dying art. We must reclaim our customs for ourselves, our children, our community, and our future.
