Starry Night: A Christmas Novel by Macomber, Debbie (2013) Hardcover

I love Christmas. I've been a bit down in the dumps lately especially during this hot, dry summer we've been having. STARRY NIGHT by Debbie Macomber transported me to another climate and season just when I needed it most. I thoroughly enjoyed the characters in this fun, quick-paced holiday novel. They seemed real to me and although the premeise was a bit far-fetched I had a blast going to Alaska and Chicago in winter, in my mind, to help me beat the summer blues. I could also probably use a little romance in my own pathetic life so I found the storyline entertaining and also a bit hopeful. I hadn't read a "holiday novel" in a long time and STARRY NIGHT reminded me how much I enjoy them, no matter the time of year. In fact, after I completed this novel I went to the local bookstore and searched out a few other Christmas books. I even bought another by the same author. I recommend this light, frosty holiday confection to readers of all ages. A fun and festive read. (Amazon customer)
