Readings for Writers Jo Ray McCuen, Anthony C. Winkler, David Madden

The Ninth Edition of Readings for Writers continues a long-standing tradition of inspiring and promoting attention to detail and technique in writing of all stages and forms. A large number of readings are included, predominantly essays, but some short stories as well. This unique text groups readings contained in each chapter according to function as 'Advice', 'Example' or Discussion to increase student awareness of the principles addressed in each exercise. Examples of effective written approaches to controversial issues are addressed in sections entitled 'Critical Thinking and Debate'.
